

Our Connectional Stories

IN MINISTRY TOGETHER
*Your giving through Our Mission Covenant
makes connectional stories

The ministry of the Portland Promise Center aligns well with the Kentucky Annual Conference's priority of engaging in ministries with the poor. Our mission to rebuild the Portland neighborhood is by working side by side with our neighbors and friends to change the Portland community from within -- through its residents. As an example of our commitment to rebuild the community from within, many of our staff members are long term residents of the neighborhood.

The Portland Promise Center is proud of its history and the trusting relationships we have established with our neighbors. The connection we have with the United Methodist Church and its volunteer base has helped us grow and maintain this relationship of trust. Over the past twenty years the ministry has grown from a small after school program that met in a tiny dilapidated shotgun house, into a full blown Christian Community Development Ministry serving well over 200 families.

The Portland Promise Center sees itself as a missional expression of God's church, creating space and relationships for broken people to find hope, healing and grace.
